How to find more resources through the library

For Books: Click on the Find books tab on the library’s homepage (www.lib.jjay.cuny.edu) and enter keywords such as “Tibet and Buddhism” or “Tibet and art”. For more instructions on finding books, visit http://bit.ly/Qq98e9.

For Articles: Click on the Find articles tab on the library’s homepage (www.lib.jjay.cuny.edu) and select databases such as Academic Search Complete, Gale Virtual Reference Library or JSTOR from the Shortcuts to popular databases dropdown menu. In the database, enter keywords pertaining to your topic such as “Nepal and art”. For more information on finding articles, visit http://bit.ly/14SgxII.

For more information about the John Jay College Library please visit www.lib.jjay.cuny.edu.

Karen Okamoto, 2/2013
Stacks BQ7970.2 .B66 2007 Regular Loan

Stacks N8199 .J34 V53 2009 Regular Loan

Stacks N8193.3 .S53 H65 2006 Regular Loan

Population and society in contemporary Tibet (2010) by Ma Rong. Hong Kong: Hong Kong University Press.