Biographical note:
Eugene Canevari was born in Greenwich Village, Manhattan, began working for the NYPD in 1927 and was assigned to the Eighth precinct, Manhattan. Soon after he rose to the rank of Detective, mostly as in various departments and squads including the Waterfront Squad; Homicide Squad (Manhattan), the Bomb Squad and the Radical Squad in the 1930s-50s.

These papers represent these years in which he worked as a detective in investigative roles, sometimes undercover. Some of the cases he worked on involved famous individuals, such as Lucky Luciano, Louis 'Lepke' Buchalter, Dutch Schultz and Vincent 'Mad Dog' Coll. Many of these crime figures Canevari knew from his childhood in Greenwich Village and was said to have been on a first name basis with them. The papers document that the bulk of his investigations were of lessor known criminals and criminal activities. He retired from the force in 1952 at the age of 49 and later formed his own detective agency.

Collection overview:
The bulk of the papers document his investigative work in the Homicide Squad (Series 2B), and the Bomb Squad (Series 2C) investigating various bomb threats and deaths in Manhattan. A portion of the papers document undercover work in the Radical Squad (Series 2A) documenting various Communist organizations undercover. The Miscellaneous NYPD investigation materials (Series 2E) contain names and addresses of infamous mob figures of the 1930’s such as Charles “Lucky” Luciano, Louis “Lepke” Buckalter, Charles “Gurrah” Shapiro, Benjamin “Bugs” Siegel, Moe “Dimples” Wilensky and Joseph “Cargo” Valachi. This series also includes Detective Canevari’s deposition of 1935 involving an attempted bribery by Arthur Flegenheimer “Dutch Schultz”. Police documents of Series 2 involving the different squads that Canevari was assigned to can be found in their respective folders but also in the NYPD Complaint reports and documents (Box 3, folders 1 and 2). Series 3 contains criminal investigation photographs mostly “mug shots”, primarily of the 1930’s, arranged in alphabetical order; some of these photographs contain detailed information on the back, some just include a name and a few of the photographs have no identification at all. The Crime Booking cards, Series 4, consist of arrests made by Canevari as officer in the Homicide Squad, Radical Squad and Bomb Squad. Some of these are typed and others are handwritten descriptions of the individuals and their alleged offenses. In some cases the crime booking cards correspond to the criminal investigation photographs and to newspaper clippings found elsewhere in the collection.

The correspondence of Series 1 is incoming and includes personal letters, business letters, and letters of appreciation by Police Commissioners Lewis J. Valentine and George P. Monaghan. A souvenir admission ticket with photograph of Detective Canevari from the New York 1939 World’s Fair is found in the miscellaneous papers of Series 1.

Newspaper clippings and photographs include mug shots of criminals and appearances and mentions of Canevari in the press, including acting as security detail protecting FDR, James Cagney, and Winston Churchill while visiting NYC.

Also note a portion of the documentation comes from Italy and is written in Italian.

Arrangement note:
During the preliminary processing, documentation and re-housing of the collection, the papers were kept within their auction lots, which don’t appear to have much if any original arrangement integrity. Therefore documentation of various crimes, criminals and investigations can be found throughout the collection. An item by item search must be made to find all materials from each case, for example, photographs of arrested people are separate from crime booking cards and notes that can be associated with these images. Auctioneer descriptions have been retained within each lot, however these do not completely describe the contents.
The papers are arranged into 5 series:

1. Papers, 1927-1951
2. NYPD Investigation Materials, 1928-1950
   2A: Radical Squad, 1926-1930’s
   2B: Homicide Squad, 1929-1942
   2C: Bomb Squad and Extortion Letters, ca. 1927-1940
   2D: Waterfront Squad, ca. 1946
   2E: Miscellaneous, 1930’s
3. NYPD Criminal Investigation Photographs, 1926-1951
4. NYPD Crime Booking Cards, 1927-1949
5. Wanted Posters and Information Bulletins, 1927-1939

Where possible materials have been arranged in chronological order. Police identification photos have been arranged in alphabetical order by name of subject. In a few cases more than one photograph exists of the subject, some of which are duplicates.

Series Descriptions

Series 1: Papers, 1927-1951
Correspondence; Personal papers and photographs; transcript of interview of Eugene Canevari’s daughter, Elaine; NYPD official rosters from 1930’s; memorabilia; newspaper clippings; popular magazines; miscellaneous material; ephemera. Note: NYPD manuals and forms were removed and placed in Special Collections NYPD collection. Publications removed for cataloging.

Series 2: NYPD Investigative materials, 1928-1950
Memoranda, correspondence, notes, statements of people brought in for questioning, reports of arrests, complaint reports, photographs of missing persons and other documents related to investigations by Detective Canevari. Investigative material that could be classified by a particular squad of NYPD was placed into subseries. These subseries reflect the different squads that Canevari was appointed to within his career with NYPD.
Series 2a: Radical Squad. Comprised of memoranda and official NYPD documents related to investigations into Communist activity in NYC, Communist party membership information and anonymous tips.

Series 2b: Homicide Squad. Comprised of correspondence, NYPD documents, notes and other materials related to investigations of the NYPD Homicide Squad.

Series 2c: Bomb Squad and Extortion Letters. Comprised of correspondence related to bomb investigations and threats; Black Hand extortion letters, death threats, photographs and documents related to specific cases, including a train track bomb, the Prosperino gang, Hamilton Fish III, and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Series 2d: Waterfront Squad. Comprised of loan shark deposition and newspaper clippings, ca. 1946.

Series 2e: Miscellaneous. Contains lists of criminals and their addresses as in the “Crime Index” and “Known Racketeers” and a deposition by Detective Canavari regarding an incident involving Arthur Flegenheimer aka Dutch Schultz in 1935.

Series 3: NYPD Criminal identification photographs (mug shots).

Contains NYPD police identification photos, mostly “mug shots” with identification of individuals, crime and date on back, or on front. Some data is incomplete. Arranged alphabetically by name.

Series 4: Crime booking cards.

Cards filled out with personal and criminal details of individuals--most appear to be arrests made by Canevari as officer in the Homicide Squad, Radical Squad and Bomb Squad. A few are identical names to those in Series 3. Arranged alphabetically by name.

Series 5: Wanted Posters and Information bulletins.

Contains chiefly NYPD wanted posters and information bulletins from 1927-1939, with gaps. Some of the individuals identified are also found in Series 3. Arranged chronologically in folders.
